

Historical Reflections/Réflexions Historiques

Call for Papers

Editor: Elizabeth C. Macknight, Independent Scholar

Co-Editor: W. Brian Newsome, Georgia College & State University

About the Journal

Historical Reflections/Réflexions Historiques (HRRH) has established a well-deserved reputation for publishing high quality articles of wide-ranging interest for over forty years. The journal, which publishes articles in both English and French, is committed to exploring history in an interdisciplinary framework and with a comparative focus. Historical approaches to art, literature, and the social sciences; the history of mentalities and intellectual movements; the terrain where religion and history meet: these are the subjects to which Historical Reflections/Réflexions Historiques is devoted.

Manuscript Submission

General submissions and proposals for special issues are welcome at any time. In this 2023 Call for Papers the editors particularly invite submissions on the following themes:

- Environmental history, including developments in rural and urban landscapes and navigating climate change
- Inflation and evolving patterns of consumption in households and businesses
- Military occupation and forms of humanitarian aid

Contributions and a separate cover page with complete contact details for authors should be sent to the editors, Elisabeth C. Macknight ecmacknight@orange.fr and Brian Newsome brian.newsome@gcsu.edu

Please consult the journal's webpages for the submission and style guidelines.
